

BRBN

Puerto Rican-American singer/songwriter, BRBN (/ˈbərbən/), was born in Hip-Hop's home of The Bronx-and hails from Hudson County, NJ. Possessing a strong-dynamic voice and smooth sound; BRBN has an irresistible blend of her latin roots, while strongly identifying with her BX urban roots. She has put the hours in establishing herself as complex songwriter, working with notable producers such as RedOne, Salaam Remi, Shy Boogs, The Heatmakers, Vein, and Dvlp. BRBN's most notable inspirations include Johnny Cash, JLo, Marc Anthony, Hector Lavoe, Daddy Yankee, Whitney Houston, Celine Dion, Jay-Z, Rihanna, Nelly Furtado, Bob Marley, and Billie Holiday; to name a few. All sorts of eclectic and versatile influences have accumulated to form her unique and diverse sound.
