

WxLF

Hailing from Los Angeles, CA, recording artist WxLF has been immersed in the music industry since childhood. Taking cues from early music mentors and producers Terrace Martin and Battlecat, WxLF began developing her own distinct vocals, sound, and writing prowess as a teen—later forging her own lane in R&B and Hip-Hop. Genre-bending in style, WxLF’s artistry has afforded her collaborative opportunities with fellow music producers Ari Levine and The Stereotypes, as well as writing for internet phenom, Lexy Panterra’s latest project and teen pop group Pynk Lemonade. Currently working on her debut EP with famed producer Animal, WxLF has recently wrapped on the music video for her first single “DOA.”
