

DANGER BOY

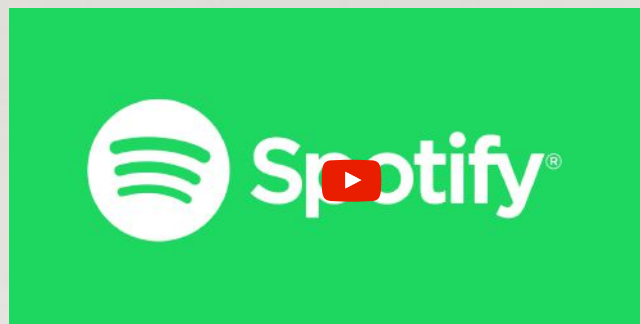

Residing in the heart of Hollywood, CA, Danger Boy has been spotted in various circles including Leo DiCaprio's "Pussy Posse". His name speaks for itself, Danger Boy is living in the fast life with no rules or boundaries. He is the life of the party!

From knocking over the entire bar in a tequila contest at Jim Carey's house, too vacationing on private Indian reservations with the Getty family. His "live like a rockstar and handle it like a boss" mentality shines through each record by taking the listener along the Hollywood scene of Sex, Drugs, and a little Funky-Rock and Roll with a heavy hip-hop base. Overall it's an experience, welcome to Danger Boy's party!
